Church of God International (CGI Canada
Feast of Trumpets, War on the Planet
Stephan Willshaw

As the sun last evening was disappearing below the horizon, I've seen it, what was it, a quarter to eight, something like that, somewhere around that time. The thought was going through in my mind's eye, and I could hear the trumpet blast.

I could hear and picture what you pictured on the screen here just a few minutes ago. I could picture the shofar, the trumpet blast, sounding. At this particular point in time, especially this one, I mean, I think the trumpets are born on all the feast days, but especially on this one. This is a pinnacle of this sort of thing, trumpet blasting. So, think about that for a few minutes.

Think about trumpet blasts on this day happening quite often.

That's kind of how I viewed it in my mind's eye. This day really hasn't happened in real time yet, has it? So a bowling of the shofar signals a time in the year when God is going to come back and claim this earth as his. Right?

That's what's going to take place. Because this deceived world routinely dismisses God when it comes to his appointed times.

How can anybody outside of you here in this room know what today pitch is.

How can anybody know what a pitch is? They wouldn't. Because in order to know what these days mean,

I've often said it, you literally have to be keeping them.

Does that resonate? Because I think I heard that so many times in the past and I thought,

I think I'm starting to get it. Probably after about 30 years. It takes a while.

You don't just show up and all of a sudden,

There's a magic wand waved over our heads. It doesn't happen that way. So this day we're keeping now pictures by showing us the very next step in God's plan.

And what I'm talking about is now we're into the fall festivals.

Just entering into them now. So there's another step in the plan. Right?

This is the next feast after what?

Pentecost. It wasn't a trick question. It's the very next step.

And we feel, I feel, I think you guys feel too, this next step isn't too far down the road.

You ever heard of a gut feeling? I have that. I get gut feelings occasionally.

You had that on atonement last year. Okay, I heard that. Now, during this message, let's see this day of trumpets. I already quoted Leviticus 23, didn't I? So let's see this festival.

Feast day, as we call it, in Numbers. Where are we going to go?

29. Let's go there. Numbers 29. We're going to pick it up in 28 first. I'm going to make reference to it in 28. Numbers 28, 29. In this day and age, we're blessed to have the entire word, aren't we?

We have it. You have it in front of you. You open it up. There it is. Voila. Voila.

Moses received it through what? The voice of God. He didn't have it. He might have had a scroll of the Old Testament. but he never had what you have. So we know a whole lot more than Moses in regards to the entire word of God. It's really a blessing, isn't it? So we receive it today through the written word, what you have in front of you. Numbers 20, in the beginning again, the Sabbath day, in the spring, holy days, right there you see it beginning with the Sabbath day. It starts out there in verse 28. Then you go a little further into it, verse 28. Or chapter 28, verse 16. Numbers 28, verse 16 talks about the spring holy days, the Passover, the Days of Unleavened Bread, and then Pentecost in the remainder of chapter 28.

Brings us right up to what? Numbers 29, which I'm going to quote from here.

That's today. Numbers 29, verse 1. In the seventh month. What's that seventh month?

Tishri, remember? First day of Tishri. In the seventh month. On the first day of the month, you shall have what? What we're having here today. A holy convocation. And you're not going to go and do any work on that day.

Maybe if you had a farm, you had to go out and do something on the farm because you had to do it.

Maybe you had to do that. That's not what this is talking about. You should do no customary work.

For you, it is a day of what? You heard it a few minutes ago. Blowing of trumpets.

A blowing of trumpets. A day of shofar blasting and of horn blasting.

Leviticus 23 tells us also, we read that already, that it is a memorial.

A memorable time of blowing of trumpets. Now you think of November 11th.

Eric would pick up on that. November 11th, November's day. That is a memorable time.

Right? We remember that. Well, this is what Trump says as well. It's a memorable time.

It's a memorial. This certainly will be a memorial day when it comes and happens in real time and we look back on it. We'll remember it. This day announces a time that we all have this great desire for, especially considering that downward spiral into this ever-increasing evil.

I mean, that's even a, you say evil. That sounds evil, doesn't it, when you put it that way.

This downward spiraling we're seeing, this downward spiraling we're seeing of this world descending into this blackness, this evil. We see it on our news.

Day in and day out. I don't watch television. I'm already too negative as it is.

Well, I could be. I don't want to be negative. So I try to stay away from the news. And I plug into things here and there. And I come in here, oh, did you see what happened last week? It just blows you away. So we're on a spiral down, it seems. So we come full on.

When we come full on to this day of trumpets, this evil, satanic, controlled world, they're not going to be, this world is not going to be asked to change when this day takes place.

They will not be asked to change.

They won't be pleaded with to change. They're going to be forced to change.

That's the reality of Trumpets. That's the reality of this day. I told you it's going to come across a little bit different in this message. From a world that is cunningly deceived by the evil one. There's that word again. Evil. When you say it with that kind of expression on it, it does sound evil.

The only other person... knew what that name was Evel Knievel. He wasn't evil.

And when that happens, when this forced change comes about, guess what? The rulership is going to change to our Heavenly Father and His Son, our Messiah. When this day is ushered in, a momentous change of government and rulership will be sought about, or will be had, rather, over the entire earth.

It's going to be incredible. It will be an epic and a significant and very marked and pointed time in history.

You think World War I or II was a big deal? Yeah, it was. But this coming up, this situation coming up down the road, this day of trumpets in reality, that's going to be a very marked point in history to be remembered for a long time.

Right through the thousand years, I'm sure. So my specific purpose,

I don't usually say this, but specific purpose statement for today is I want to discuss the Feast of Trumpets and some of its meaning. It's not going to be an exhaustive message. I don't have the time to do that. I want to talk about this annual holy day we're keeping here today. This appointed time, and I've called the message to this. This is my title. Feast of Trumpets, 2026. War on the planet.

War on the planet.

When these permanent changes come, it's going to be dramatic. The change of rulership is going to be dramatic. It's never happened before. Obviously, the Feast of Trumpets marks the beginning of this overshadowing. Let's put it that way. This overshadowing of satanic rule, of satanic government that has been operating on the earth.

This new operation of life of God's righteousness is going to be ushered in on this particular day when it's fulfilled. Let's go to Matthew 20. Matthew 20 and verse 25.

Let's turn there because Christ does tell us something really important about human government and the principles of human government which we have seen very clearly over time and right up to the present time. Matthew 20, verse 25.

I'm going to read out of a different translation right now in this particular verse. I'm reading out of the New Living Translation. And I quote from Matthew 20, 25. But Jesus called his disciples to himself and said, You know that the rulers of this world lord it over the people.

And officials want their authority. over these under them.

Now your translation probably reads a little different than that, but that's pretty straightforward.

What Jesus is saying here to his disciples at the time, the rulers of this world do basically whatever they want to those under them.

Now, here Jesus, over 2,000 years ago, verbalizing the reality to his disciples back then. Today, the very same is playing out, isn't it? Man's government orchestrated, let's say manipulated, and here it comes, you guys like this comment, organized and manipulated by all scratch.

It's ultimately about satanic power and control overshadowing those created in God's image to bring what? To bring about their demise.

How many governments, how many... many governments plan war with other countries?

It's been happening forever.

Do people come away with that in good shape? No. It's exactly the opposite.

Planning people's... This is Satan I'm talking about here now.

It's mind-boggling. We've had wars taking place all down through time.

What do wars do? Take people's lives.

Just a couple years ago. I'll go to this point. Just a couple of years ago, taking place. It was evident, very evident. It didn't seem evident at first, but this, they call it what? A pandemic. Remember that? I don't have the entire word it's called.

You already know what I'm talking about. COVID pandemic, right? That situation become front and center. Where? Just in Kawartha Lakes? Just in Ontario? Just in a couple of provinces in Canada?

No, everywhere, all over the world. We've seen it.

We've seen it happen.

And the ones that had the power issued the mandates. And that mandate basically had the law to control people and what they were doing and how they were living. And this control gets stronger and stronger. And finally, life isn't the same anymore, is it? That's how it goes. We've seen this play out. That's old news now. But there's still wars going on. We've got this thing in Iran. Jamie talked about it today.

We've got this thing over in Russia and the other country there. Bad news. How long has that been going on? Four or five years? Way too long. So yes, God allows. And I'll say this. God allows these governments, these different people in various countries to be raised up.

Well, if that's the case, why? Have you ever thought that maybe that's what these people deserve?

That's the kind of leadership they deserve because of the evil?

They're doing it themselves. How many times have you heard, we have to repent. Do people repent?

Only 15. Here in Kawartha Lakes.

Pretty mind-boggling, isn't it? So this is what could be taking place. God's allowing these people to get in leadership because that's what these people need. That's what these people deserve.

We'll continue on with this message because be it democracy, some sort of republic set up, socialism,

communism,

And even a dictatorship. There's certainly other forms of government that I've not mentioned. Those are just the things that came to my mind as I was putting this message together. We should be able to see these are all different. They don't operate exactly the same way, do they? No. However, here's a rub on that. Our adversary, he overshadows each and every one of them.

Why?

He's God.

competition with the devil. Why? Because he has this plan in place.

And he's overshadowing it. Most people don't see that.

But you do. The 14 of you see that. We know God's overshadowing what Satan's doing.

Because he has a plan. He has something that he's working out. And it's being worked out.

Today's one of those days. The Feast of Trumpets. Now we're going to know this.

This isn't pretty.

It's going to come to the point, brothers and sisters, that unless God steps in on this particular day, the world is going to come to total annihilation.

It's a big deal.

Total annihilation of humankind. Life as we know it would end. Somebody's going to push the button.

Somebody may... That wasn't me. Somebody may push the button.

We don't know. So God's going to step in before it's too late. Because all the imperfect, satanically infected human governments surrounding this planet are being overshadowed, as we know, by you-know-who.

And I don't need to tell anybody who that is. They're all being overshadowed.

None left out, we could say.

Now... This feast of trumpets will be a turning point before that day of annihilation is set off. And trumpets will be ushered in, and according to God's plan and how it's all laid out, the Godhead are really in control. And only 15 people here in this Orthodox community understand that. This appointed time of trumpets we are observing today marks the end of satanic rule here on the planet. And it's been going on how long? Since the Garden of Eden. Right back.

6,000 years plus, brethren. That is way too long.

I don't think anybody would argue that point. Way too long. But that's the plan.

That's what God has in place. This apocalyptic book. Let's go there.

Let's see something else in Word of God right now. Let's go back to the end of the Bible.

Revelation 11, let's go there. Because this is an apocalyptic book, and it's really difficult.

Now, while you're turning to Revelation 11, it's really difficult to understand and get straight sometimes just by the way that it's written down and recorded for us.

Now, some of the difficulty might be because of what we refer to as inset, Revelation 11, inset chapters. I remember hearing that word about, I don't know how long ago it was, I was listening to a message, and it was a church in North Carolina was preaching this Sabbath day, and they talked about inset chapter. What is an inset chapter? I never heard the word before.

I never heard the phrase. So far, some would say that there's eight. inset chapters in the book of Revelation, 22 books all together, right? There's eight of those books that are inset chapters. Here's the numbers that they don't all agree on, but I'll give you the numbers. Inset chapters are 12, 13, 14.

These are chapters. Chapters 12, 13, 14, 17, 18, and 19, and 21 and 22. That's eight. Those are supposedly the inset chapters.

I heard some say seven as well, chapter seven, but I'm not sure. It's not written in stone. So don't worry about it. But maybe that's what makes Revelation so hard and difficult. So hard and difficult to understand.

Now, the best I can understand, not that I have it all perfectly either, these inset chapters leave the flow of the book and more or less jump right into something regarding the plan or detail of God, but not necessarily in order, the way the book flows. That's what makes Revelation possibly difficult to get to it. So let's remember the book. It's the book of prophecy. And knowing the narrative, knowing the narrative is what is most important. You know something, we don't have to worry about it so much because if we're around at the time, let's say we live through all of it and we're around at the time, we're going to understand it because we understand the narrative. That's really what's important, most important. I'm not saying don't study the book of Revelation. Yeah, go ahead and do that. That's important. The Feast of Trumpets announces the beginning of the Father's rule. being ushered in to this earth. The end of Nab's government and the beginning of our Father's perfect form of government. Revelation 11, we'll pick it up in 15.

And then the seventh angel sounded his trumpet. Well, we know that after seven trumpets, there were six before it. Okay? And there were great voices, continuing on there, and there were great voices in heaven saying, the kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord and His Christ, and He shall reign into the ages of eternity.

The kingdoms become the property and possession of God Almighty, God the Father and His Son, don't they? So this tells us that both the Father and Son are personally involved in this coming kingdom. pictured by this particular day.

Verse 16, And the twenty-four elders who sit before God on their thrones fell on their faces and worshipped God, saying, We give you thanks, O Lord God Almighty, who is and who was and who is to come, for you have taken to yourself your great power and have reigned. End of quote. There can only be one God Almighty.

The Feast of Trumpets marks a permanent change which is coming.

And the Father, as we know, has always reigned supreme in the heavens.

We're not concerned about that. But now, according to His plan, He will reign,

Him and His Son, supreme on this earth and through the faith.

that we've been given,

we don't question that.

We believe that. That is going to take place. However, will this be well accepted by the world?

It's down here at that time when that return happens. Let's see what it says.

Revelation 11 and verse 18. Mark this verse. When the return happened, the nations, what were they? They were angry. And your wrath has come in the time of the dead that they should be judged and that you should reward the prophets and the saints and all who fear your name. small and great, and should destroy those who destroy the Earth.

Now, this is what's taking place today. It's getting worse and worse and worse and more worse.

Humanity is on this trajectory destroying this Earth. Pretty amazing.

Just the trash and the garbage being created, the plastics in our oceans, wind up causing much havoc. They say now there's not even a... even a clear, safe bit of drinking water.

You've got to filter it all now. I remember when I was a kid, I used to drink out of the canal in the wintertime. Nothing ever happened to me. I used to drink out of people's hoses and all this sort of thing.

Yeah. So it's really accelerated, hasn't it? You're all laughing about that, but you know something? It's real. It's real. Just the trash and garbage being created is causing so much heavy.

The lack of clean air, clean water. And all this ground contamination going on.

Is there such a thing as organic food? I don't think so.

It's all contaminated. Maybe some not as much as others, but it's contaminated. So we see the angry nations here. Why? At the return of Christ. Right? And they fight against that.

Can you imagine? Can you wrap your mind around that?

This feast day. This Feast of Trumpets pictures war.

War against a father, sending his son back to this earth to save them.

Think about it. To save them from blowing themselves up. Completely.

Just blows your mind.

Well, all we can say is this. The prince of the power of the air has done a cleverly, amazingly clever job regarding disruption.

He deceives the brilliant people of the world. Not the weakened base like you.

Not the 15 of us.

It's kind of hard to wrap your mind around. How can all these smart people be deceived?

Makes us wonder.

Makes us wonder. You know, here's something else. Anything but biblical truth, other than this little itty-bitty, teeny-weeny, small church of God movement over the years,

Just this little Church of God movement going on the earth. I don't know what it is. It's .0003 or some small number that you couldn't even figure out what it is.

All this negativity, all this stuff against God's plan that's been transmitted to the world over the last 70, 80, or 100 years just on our TV and radio. That's just a drop in the bucket.

But it stands for quite a lot, doesn't it? Very strong deception will come about here on the earth.

and bring about the end of these days. You want something to think about? You want something to look at? Think about the Battle of Armageddon. That's where this is all going to go, to the Battle of Armageddon. Now, we always have to keep in mind what human nature is like.

Let me quote what Paul says. You don't have to turn there. Let me quote Romans 8 and verse 7.

You've heard this so many times because the carnal mind is an enemy.

against God, for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can it be.

We've read that many times. How can that happen to all these smart people? It happens.

Satan is clever. Very clever. Quite clear, isn't it? Human nature, left to itself, outside, the understanding of what God is doing, is hostile to God.

Coming with a spirit. of rebellion against God and totally rejecting God.

With that in mind, notice what happens. Isaiah 66.

Let's go there. Isaiah 66. Just two verses there, 15 and 16. Isaiah 66.

The world is going to once again rebel against God Almighty at His Son's return.

It won't be acceptance. They're going to seriously fight.

We read it here in Isaiah 66.

And this is going to be the response of the Godhead. Here's what is going to happen.

Isaiah 66, 15 and 16. For behold, the Lord will come with what?

With fire and with chariots like a whirlwind to render his angry with fury and his rebuke with flames of fire. For by fire and by a sword, the Lord will judge all flesh and the slain of the Lord. shall be many. And if you listen to Jamie this morning, he gave a graphic detail on this day. You want to listen to a message, another message on trumpets, a little different than mine, go and listen to it.

This is not pretty. This will not be a pretty time. There's going to be a lot of spilt human blood.

The day of trumpets for keeping, when it shows up in real time, marks the beginning of that process. The very beginning of the process. That's what today stands for.

Zechariah 14, this time. Let's go there. When this day is fulfilled, the Firstfruits will, that's you, will be there. We will be involved.

We will see the change of rulership. Talking here about the day of the Lord.

Zechariah 14. I'm going to read all five verses here.

Here it is. And I quote Zechariah 14, verses 1 to 5. Behold. The day of the Lord is coming and your spoil will be divided in your midst. For I will gather all nations to battle against Jerusalem and the city shall be taken, the houses rifled and the women ravished.

Half the city will go into captivity, but the remnant of the people shall not be cut off from the city. Verse 3. Then the Lord shall go forth and fight against those nations as he fights in the day of battle. And his feet in that day shall stand on the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east. And the Mount of Olives shall split in two from east and to the west and shall make a great valley. And half of the mountain shall move towards the north and half of it towards the south. And you shall flee to the valley of the mountains.

For the valley of the mountains shall reach Azael. And you shall flee as you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Mosiah king of Judah. And the Lord my God shall come. The saints with you. That's you. That's us. That's the saints. We're coming back. So here we are.

We read of the saints. First fruits, chosen by God, returning to the earth with Christ.

Battle ready at this time.

Let's see Revelation 19 this time. Revelation 19. Let's turn there.

Verse 11. I'll read down to 14.

Revelation 19, verse 11.

And I saw heaven opened. And behold, a white horse. And he who sat on it is called faithful and true. And in righteousness, he judges and makes war. This is totally different, brethren, than Revelation 6 and verse 2. This is totally different.

When the seals were opened there, that was Satan the devil riding that white horse. That's deception. This is a different deal here altogether. Verse 12. His eyes were what?

Like a flame of fire. And on his head were many crowns. He had a name written that no one knew except himself. And he was clothed with a robe dipped in blood.

And his name is called the Word of God. And 14, and the armies in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, followed him on white horses.

End of quote. So here we see the Christ making war against those who rebel against him at his return.

He's wearing many crowns, it says there. Why?

Because he's king of kings and lord of lords. That's why. This day will take place when all is fulfilled according to the Father. This day is its fulfillment. This day and its fulfillment will bring change according to the structure of what the Father's rule is, we, brethren, can count on that. When it's all said and done, the Father's rule will only,

and I mean only, be done in righteousness.

Zechariah 14 this time, the rule of righteousness. We don't have that now. We've never had that for 6,000 years.

It's coming. Zechariah 14. Let's turn there. We were there earlier in the first five verses.

We'll pick it up in verse 6 this time. Continue on from there. Right down to, where am I going to go? Down to 9. Zechariah 14, verse 6 to 9. And I quote, And it shall come to pass in that day that the light shall not be clear nor dark. It's going to be foggy. It's going to be not too clear at that point. And it will be one day, verse 7, it will be one day which shall be known to the Lord, neither day nor night, see that, neither day nor night, but it shall come to pass that at evening time it shall be light. And it shall be in that day that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem, half of them shall go towards the eastern sea, which is the Dead Sea, and half of them shall go towards the western sea, the Mediterranean Sea. And in summer and in winter, It shall be, verse 9, and the Lord God shall be a king over all the earth in that day.

There shall be one Lord, and his name shall be one. Him alone will be worshipped.

We also read the words of Christ in John 17, verse 3. I'll quote it for you. This is eternal life, that they may know you.

and the only true God and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent. The Father is going to send them back.

He's going to come back just in time, at the perfect time. The Christ sent to this earth to execute wrath, the wrath of his Father. Both the Father and the Son are going to show absolutely no mercy when openly opposed by humankind. when openly disobeyed by humans.

He shows no mercy when this day of trumpets fully comes on the scene.

Brethren, this day is coming.

They were already there, but I'm going to quote one verse of Zechariah 14. It's verse 12.

Zechariah 14, verse 12. And this shall be the plague with which the Lord will smite the people.

Listen to this. This is mind-boggling.

Who have fought against Jerusalem.

Their flesh shall consume away while they stand on their feet.

And their eyes shall consume away in their sockets. And their tongues shall consume away in their mouth. End of quote.

They're being melted. Melted right there while they stand.

The time is coming when the Father and the Son, we've just read it, show no mercy.

To this open rebellion of mankind. But don't forget, they're all deceived still.

Right? We haven't got to the Day of Atonement yet. We guys were talking about that earlier. The Father and the Son's rule is based on their love for the Father's creation. For all humanity.

For all of His children. But they're not listening.

The basis is what?

Love for Father's children. Love for all the children. He wants to love them all. They're not loving Him.

Remember the Father offered. Think about this. Remember the Father offered His Son as a sacrifice.

His Son actually offered Himself as that very same sacrifice, both together. They had to endure going through all of that.

We talked about that at Passover.

It's mind-boggling. Well, why?

Because their love for the Father's children. the overarching reason to have them, hopefully, to achieve eternal life. Think of the huge risk that was in that sacrifice.

Because it makes the wheels of our mind really think, really activates the wheels of our mind, doesn't it? And this, brother, is already in place.

The whole world, the whole plan, rather, is about His love, for each and every one of his human children. Truly what it is. Here it is.

The first commandment. We know it by heart. Remember the ten boiled down to two?

The first one's this. I'll quote it for you from Matthew 22. It goes from Matthew 22 to 37 to 40.

It says this. To love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. That's the first one. With everything that you and I have.

That has to be in place first. Remember I always say, let's put God first.

That's what it is. I'm not making it up. It's the truth.

And the second one. It's like it.

And it says this. You should love your neighbor as yourself.

That's the two, or the ten, all boiled down into two.

What the father and son first did through their sacrifice wasn't easy.

But it was done, wasn't it? No, as well, our part of the equation. Is that easy? No.

But it can also be done.

It can be done. And it's being done.

Maybe only by the few that it's taking place. Now, this is the bedrock.

This is the foundation of their rule. The two commandments will be the foundation of what the entire world are going to be taught.

Starting when? With today. With the Feast of Troubles. That's when it begins.

That's when God will step in and say, enough's enough.

That's when our Father's rule starts here on planet Earth. All honor and all glory and all supremacy go to the Father and His Son. Who will rule under Him? We are called, what? We've chosen to rule under the Messiah. In whatever capacity we are given, we're going to fulfill that. We're in training right now. That's no secret.

This time we are celebrating today. When this day arrives in real time, we as first fruits will have already known that the most high rules in the world now, it will be their time to learn finally, or to finally learn, however you want to look at that. Because they're not learning right now. It'll take Trumpets to do it.

And we know that rule, the rulership, is not going to be done by humans.

any longer. The most high and all its perfect rule is going to take over at that point.

It will be the end of the overarching governments of man.

Well, Satan's got his foot in the door all the time. It's going to be plainly evident, brethren, who is in control when the Father and Son come on the scene in wrath and in fury.

We definitely don't want to be there.

Now, this rule of ship, It's based on service. But those created in His image, created in God's image, it's based on service. Those destined to become family members by doing what is best for them.

The day symbolizes for the very first time since the Garden of Eden that the population of the entire earth is being ruled by the Father and His Son and we are so looking forward to this time.

That's why this day is so important. We see. The deceived, the warped, the polluted world of today. This day of trumpets, when it enters onto the scene in real time, marks, as we know, a beautiful time to come. It's a joyous occasion.

It's a joyous occasion on the other side of the coin. It's war on one side, but joyous when it happens, right?

Despite the fact, and we know this, of the horror, the death, and the destruction this day actually is going to bring. But you know something?

It seems like the only way that the majority of mankind will learn.

Isn't that sad? You've heard the old saying, oh, I always learn the hard way.

Right? Well, that's what it is. I hate to say that about myself, but it's been true of the past. I'm sure we can all relate to it.

Let's begin to close for today. Our talk about Trump is a little different. Maybe you've heard it.

But it's a message of trumpets. This day, things are going to change. Let's begin to close. Let's go to Isaiah again. Isaiah 11. I don't think I went there already. Isaiah 11, verses 4 to 9. Let's read it in context of where this day takes us. Isaiah 11, 4 to 9. It will be terror, agony, bloodshed, and the wrath of God on mankind because mankind has thumbed his nose at God for over 6,000 years.

And this is where it all leads.

What did I say? Isaiah 11. In verse 4. I'll read down to verse 9.

And I quote.

Isaiah 11, verse 4. And he will give justice to the poor. Justice to the poor. And make fair decisions for the exploited. The earth shall shake at the force of his word.

And breath from his mouth will destroy. The wicked. That was sort of the New Living Translation.

New King James coming up here now.

Verse 5. Righteousness shall be the belt of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his waist.

The wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the young goat, and the calf and the young lion, and fattening together, and the little child shall lead them.

In 7 and 8 talk along a similar line. Verse 9 says this, They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain. Here comes the joy of it all. For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea. End of quote.

Brethren, as we picture this in our mind's eye, this day of trumpets marks the time of war.

and incredible destruction on planet Earth. The good news is, according to God's plan of salvation, the saints will have their part to play as well as be all in by remaining faithful to the end. Because, guess what? No guessing involved here.

We are not there yet. We still have work to do. We're not there yet.

The Father is going to rule the entire world. relatively soon as I see it. The task at hand for every one of us is to completely submit to our Father's role in our lives. In this present day, we're being judged now.

Not only to receive a call, but to completely answer this special calling that we all have been given, all 15 of us. What a special calling. The people of this earth alive at the end during this period of time will be at that time forced to submit.

They won't get a choice anymore. Forced to submit. I brought that up briefly about the Battle of Armageddon already. Earlier, I did talk about that, but I didn't talk much about it.

I didn't talk about it at all, actually. But if you really want to check that out, go online and plug that into Google or some search engine and find out what comes through that. particular battle. It's pretty sobering. It's very sobering. The Father is going to give us the opportunity with the power of the Holy Spirit in us to voluntarily submit absolutely without any reservation 100% no matter what happens. Submit to God Almighty.

We're being tested now, today to see if you, to see if I will do Just that, to submit, to surrender our will 100%. We're being tested now, today.

We have to prove that to our Father. This is a task, the job presently at hand.

We're not there yet.

The call is always to be submissive to the tooth of Godhead. It's just that simple.

This day marks the beginning of our Father's rule. When the ashes settle, the clouds of war,

And this will usher in the perfect government and righteous rule on planet Earth for a thousand years. And that time is going to come at the fulfillment of this Feast of Trumpets when it's actually fulfilled. What a joyous time this is going to be.

So let's end right there. And let's look forward to the very fulfillment of this Feast of Trumpets.
