

A Reflection of Jesus

Lesson 9 A Building for Eternity

"I will put my laws in their minds, and write it on their hearts.

I will be their God, and they will be my people"

(Jeremiah 31:33).

God was the architect who carefully designed and planned every detail of His Tabernacle and Temple. This same God has not overlooked the details He has planned for our lives in His kingdom.

As you have learned this Feast of Tabernacles, the Tabernacle and the Temple were not to be defiled. God was very specific in the details. He revealed who would make the offering, and how and when he would make it. There was a standard to be followed, and if the standard was not followed, someone would lose his life. God looks at the attitude of DELIBERATE disobedience in a very serious light. But when we try to serve God in sincerity He is patient in His teaching. To obediently follow God's instructions shows trust, faith, and honor for Him. God doesn't need burnt offerings or special gifts. God wants us to be loving and fair and to walk humbly with Him.

Praise be to God that our High Priest is Jesus Christ. We do not need a human priest to intercede for us. We may now kneel in prayer at any time of day or night and ask for forgiveness of sin. This is because Jesus Christ tabernacles in our heart and mind.

When God receives your prayers, which is like the incense burning in the Tabernacle, He sees Jesus Christ, our High Priest and Mediator, who intercedes for us. He sees we are Christ's, and therefore we are His. What a plan! □
